Li Ji, Shigui Tao, Tai-Yu Lin, Yanan Sun, Mingle Chen, Yung-ho Chiu, Wesley Hu, authors of the article "Efficiency and regional divergence in China's poverty reduction (SDG 1) and decent work and economic growth (SDG 8)", published in Technological and Economic Development of Economy, 32(2), 485–507, <https://doi.org/10.3846/tede.2025.24894> inform that the following note below Table 5 in page 493 should be added.

Note: Due to the unavailability of relevant data, the study sample does not include Xizang, Hong Kong, Macao, and Taiwan; therefore, the analysis focuses only on 30 provincial-level regions in China.

The correction does not affect the data, empirical results, or conclusions of the article.

The authors regret the errors.
